

Number of foreign languages studied by students in compulsory schools, 1999/2000-2019/2020

	Corresponding number of students enrolled	Students learning foreign languages	Students learning one foreign language	Students learning two foreign languages	Students learning three foreign languages or more	Students learning no foreign languages
1999-2000	43030	23512	7239	14924	1349	19518
2000-2001	43644	25144	8993	14519	1632	18500
2001-2002	44103	25960	8919	15385	1656	18143
2002-2003	44695	27117	9077	16517	1523	17578
2003-2004	44809	27870	9596	16755	1519	16939
2004-2005	44511	28164	9736	17271	1157	16347
2005-2006	44336	28827	10232	17275	1320	15509
2006-2007	43875	29855	11540	16941	1374	14020
2007-2008	43841	33099	14574	17314	1211	10742
2008-2009	43511	33974	15398	17602	974	9537
2009-2010	42929	33303	15226	17165	912	9626
2010-2011	42539	33558	15713	17125	720	8981
2011-2012	42365	33937	16065	16850	1022	8428
2012-2013	42320	33947	16237	16753	957	8373
2013-2014	42734	34522	16724	17070	728	8212
2014-2015	43136	35176	16722	17932	522	7960
2015-2016	43760	36044	17821	17651	572	7716
2016-2017	44527	36373	17544	17966	863	8154
2017-2018	45195	36469	17444	18222	803	8726
2018-2019	45904	37192	17543	18981	668	8712
2019-2020	46254	38089	17847	19475	767	8165

Data on languages are collected from compulsory schools every spring for the current school year.

The number of students learning no, one, two or three foreign languages is estimated using the national curriculum and the languages reported from the schools.

Latest update: 20210312 09:00

Units: Number

Reference period: 1999-2020